Agenda No. 2
Discussion on Heritage Bye-Laws

At the outset of meeting Member Secretary, NMA described the process of framing of Heritage Bye-laws and various related issues. He further explained that total fifteen Heritage Bye-laws covering seventy-five monuments, prepared by INTACH, AKTC and CA office Mumbai were submitted to NMA (Annexure 1). Out of these Six Heritage Bye-laws were approved by NMA and sent to Ministry of Culture. The Bye-laws were further reviewed by NMA and it has been observed that complete information prescribed in Schedule I and Schedule II AMASR (Amendment and Validation) Act 2010 have not been incorporated in these Bye-laws. NMA approved a revised template for Heritage Bye-laws in its meeting held on 18-05-2016 where five Competent Authorities (Heritage Bye-laws) and officials of Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) were also present.

After detailed discussion the following decisions were taken during the meeting:

1. The revised Template for Heritage Bye-laws, approved by NMA will form the basis of all Heritage Bye-laws. The six approved Bye-laws will be revised on template format by clearly demarcating the parameters of Schedule I and Schedule II respectively.

2. Out of fifteen, the revised format of seven Bye-laws (BBD Bagh, Bas Relief Image depicting Siva, Sher Shah Gate & Khairul Manazil Mosque, Jugal Kishore Temple, Gwalior Fort, Siva Temple of Patambi and Humayun’s Tomb) with all requisite details will be submitted to NMA by 31st January 2017 by INTACH and AKTC through concerned Competent Authorities.

3. INTACH will revise the byelaws of BBD Bagh on the basis of the information available by the Total Station Survey already been carried out by Kolkata Municipal Corporation. They will also include a list of buildings with height details located within prohibited and regulated area of the monuments.

4. For the Bye-laws of Monolithic Bas Relief Image at Parel, It has been decided that Competent Authority, Western Region will incorporate the height restriction keeping in view of local situation.

5. Archaeological Survey of India will provide the complete information as per Schedule I after Total Station Survey in respect of Jugal Kishore Temple, Vrindavan, Sher Shah Gate & Khairu’l Manazil Mosque and Gwalior Fort, Gwalior to be completed on priority basis.

6. Member Secretary, NMA will write to Chief Secretary, Uttar Pradesh to extend the cooperation of local Revenue Authority to ASI officials in connection with collecting the data for preparation of Heritage Bye-laws.

7. Member Secretary, NMA will write to D.G. ASI for providing the site plans to INTACH as per Schedule I parameters in respect of Dwarkadhish Temple, Dwarka, Charminar, Hyderabad, Begampuri Mosque & Bijay Mandal, Delhi, Baoli Ghaus Ali Khan, Farrukhnagar and Cheluvanarayanaswamy Temple, Melukote.

8. Member Secretary, NMA will write to INTACH to re-draft the Heritage Bye-Laws as per discussion held in the meeting.

9. A review meeting will take place during last week of December, 2016.

10. Regarding balance 8 Heritage Bye-Laws under consideration, for which draft has been prepared by INTACH. The deadline for finalization of same will be 28th February, 2017.
